Penn relay carnival here. LeGendre, who had been touted trongly to duplicate the performance of Howard Borry, the former great man of Pern, fractured a pair of carnival records, to win in the javelin throw which he captured with a toss of 171 feet, and in the 200 meters, which he ran in :22 1-5. COLLEGE PARK, Md. April 28.— Employing an attack which kept the ball in Penn State's territory the greater part of the game Uni-versity of Maryland handily van-quished the Nittany Lions at la-crosse, 10 to 3, here this afternoon. It was Maryland's second triumph

It was Maryland's second triumph over Penn State in two seasons.

Starting with a rush the Black and Gold stickmen unleashed a whirlwind attack that virtually swept the visitors off their feet and at halftime were leading 7 to 1.

HARRIS' WILDNESS BIG FACTOR IN NATS' 5TH STRAIGHT WIN

Mogridge Holds Macks Safe—Bush and Judge Star With Willow.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28.-Blanketty-blank-blank, That is the only way to describe what happened out at Shibe Park today. At the end five or six thousand persons, after two hours and fifteen minutes of mental torture and phys respective homes with only one definite idea-that Washington had walloped the Athletics, and that the score was somewhere around 9

The Mackmen defeated themselves just as much as did the opposition. There were occasions - rare, but traveled an inning or so in style, but for the most part everything they did was off color. At times t was a burlesque.

Harris Is Wild.

Once more it was the good-na-tured "Slim" Harris who started what he couldn't finish. The sixfoot-six Texan was wilder than two hostile canaries battling with a hysterical sunfish. He just couldn't locate the plate. In the first two land—Withelm for Smith. Rowe for Eillott. Brewer for Stevens, Lewis for Marden. Too bias for Miller, Darkis for Marty. Giants' 5-Run Rally in 8th Defeats Braves, 10 to 6. In their first game at the Hub this year. Boston, gathering 15 hits, had run up to a 6-to-5 lead at that point, and McGraw's men, in getting the five runs necessary for a victory, drove Watson from the box. The score:

for the purpose. Bush scored two runs himself, sacrificed a teammate to second, walked once, drove out a double and astonished the Athletics by limping down to first in time to heat the throw on his bunt in the fourth. Judge collected a brace of doubles which figured in the rungetting and walked twice.

Now to the reason why the Athletics didn't score enough runs to win. It was a big one, this reason, fully as big as the reason why the visitors did court so often. In other words, Mogridge is virtually the same height as Harris. The difference today was that he knew what and where he was heaving them. He had a lot of stuff, did the tall left-hander, and he used it profusely.
